This document describes what we can do for you. And how much this will cost. Other financial service providers have a similar document. This way you can compare us with others. And you can also compare our costs.

Please note! This document describes what we normally do and identifies the average price of these services. This information therefore is not specifically geared to your personal situation. It is therefore important to always make clear agreements with your service provider.

You want additional funds for later in life

Would you like additional funds for later in life? For example would you like to supplement your pension when you are retired? Or would you like to have additional funds for something else later in life? If so, you can consult this document to find out what we can do for you. And how much our service costs. In these situations you have a wealth creation inquiry and you need to consider a number of things. For example:

- How much pension will you have when you retire? Do you consider that sufficient? Or do you consider that too little?
- Do you have money left over at the present time for additional pension?
- What are the Dutch tax rules?
- What are the pros and cons of saving or investing?

In this document you can find out if we can help you in answering these questions, how we do it and the approximate costs we charge for this service.

Summary: what can we do for you?

We are a financial service provider and below we describe what we can do for you. The services provided by financial service providers can be classified into five different types of activities. Not every financial service provider provides all five types of activities. We provide the activities coloured dark. We do not provide the activities coloured light.

Notes: What can we do for you?

1. Analysis

What is your personal situation?

We start off with your personal situation. Because it is only once we are thoroughly familiar with your personal situation that we can give you effective financial advice. Together with you we answer the following questions, for example:

- What do you already know about possible financial solutions? And do you have any experience with these solutions?
- What would you like to pay and what can you afford to pay?
- How much certainty are you looking for? And how much risk can you and are you willing to take?

2. Advice

What is the most appropriate financial solution for you and your situation?

After we have identified your personal situation and wishes, and have a picture of you as a customer, we analyse this customer profile. You will receive a financial solution that suits your situation and wishes.

3. Search

Which financial service provider offers the financial solution that is appropriate for you?

Once we have assessed which financial solution best suits your situation and wishes, we start looking for a suitable product. To find a suitable offer, we compare a limited number of wealth creation products. We assess which wealth creation products are appropriate for you and your situation. We prefer to work with a number of financial service providers.

4. Contract

Have you made a decision? If so, we can see to it that you get the contracts.

After we have given you our advice, it is up to you to make a decision. If you wish, we can see to it that you will get the contracts.

5. Aftercare

After you have obtained the contract, we monitor whether things go well.

The contract often is long-term. After you have signed the contract, your personal situation can change. It is possible that at some point in the future, the product no longer fits your personal situation. It is important for you to know that during the term of the contract you are entitled to information; for example about important changes to the product.

Please note!

What financial service providers can do for you after you have a contract, can differ drastically. Because of this, clearly agree on what the service provider will and will not do. And how much this will cost.

In addition to our legal obligations, we can provide aftercare services for you after the contract has been signed. Discuss with us what we can do for you.

The costs will be separately invoiced on the basis of an hourly rate.

Costs: How much will you be paying?

Service Fees

	Average Costs
Advisory fees	€ 500
Closing fees	€ 295
